Special Guests

Danny Hirajeta

Danny Hirajeta, Iron Clown Studios, is a local artist and a Librari-Con staple. A comic artist and graphic designer, Danny's work can be found on skateboard decks, tarot cards, Rogue Rollergirl posters, but for the full effect, pick up his Sinner and the Saint Remix series. He's mentored teen artists at the library for several years and he continues to be a role model for aspiring graphic artists. Stop by his table in Artists Alley and see the real deal.

Kaysha Siemens

Kaysha Siemens, Eldanis Studios, is a freelance artist and illustrator originally hailing from Canada who has been drawing ever since she can remember. She spends most of her time traveling up and down the eastern United States, attending various anime conventions with her work. The rest of her time she spends in rehab, undergoing treatment for an unhealthy obsession with wings. Her work can be found online at <http://eldanis.deviantart.com/>, and on the official posters for Librari-Con in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Currently she lives in North Carolina with her cat, Bobby.

Snow Wildsmith

Snow Wildsmith is a writer and former teen librarian. She has served on committees for the American Library Association/Young Adult Library Services Association, including the 2010 Michael L. Printz Award Committee, the 2009 and 2008 Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults Committees, and the 2007 Great Graphic Novels for Teens Committee. She reviews graphic novels for Booklist, ICv2's Guide, No Flying No Tights, and Good Comics for Kids and also writes booktalks and creates recommended reading lists for Ebsco's NovelList database. Currently she is working on her first books, a nonfiction series for teens.

The Carolina Garrison of the 501st Legion of Stormtroopers

The Carolina Garrison of the 501st Legion of Stormtroopers, is the North Carolina/South Carolina chapter of an all-volunteer, international Star Wars costuming organization. The 501st Legion's aims are to celebrate the Star Wars saga through costuming, to promote the quality and improvement of costumes and props, and most importantly to contribute to the local community through charity and volunteer work. Members from the 501st have attended every Librari-Con since its inaugural year in 2007, and continue to make every convention special.

The G.n.F Party Games A host of mini games and improv where participants will be chosen at random from the audience to show their talents and possibly win some prizes in the process.

Graphic Novels for Parents and Teachers Snow Wildsmith from School Library Journal's Good Comics for Kids blog will talk about graphic novels--what they are, how they work, how to read them, how to enjoy them with your kids and/or students, etc.

Graphic Novels for Parents & Teachers Discussion Time Meet with Snow Wildsmith from School Library Journal's Good Comics for Kids blog for small group discussion about graphic novels. There will be books available for you to browse through.

How to Draw for Beginners Crow from the Anime Arsenal gives a beginner class on how to draw.

How to Steampunk Your Universe Oliver Vest of FeeFieFauxtography demonstrates how to make Steampunk accessories out of found and recycled objects.....beware the toaster squirrel!

Introduction to Anime for Beginners Windigo from Anime Arsenal covers the essentials of anime viewing.

Intro to J-Music Come meet Windigo of the Anime Arsenal as he educates you, the otaku mass, on the who's who in the J-music world.

Jeopardy Contestants go head to head to head in a battle of knowledge of the anime sub-culture and compete for fabulous prizes.

Jeopardy Elimination Quiz Participants duel it out by testing their knowledge to see who will be contestants of this year's Jeopardy.

Magic: the Gathering Demonstration Justin McCrary of Cardz-n-Things demonstrates Magic: the Gathering. (ages 13 and up)

Making the Monster Danny Hirajeta of Iron Clown Studios will head an advanced panel on choosing and creating monsters for storytellers and artists. Including but not limited to Robots, Evil Clowns, Bio-Freaks, and Classical Monsters and Demons.

Manga Lounge Ready for a break? Have a seat and browse the library's manga, graphic novels and teen fiction. Located in the Teen Area. Shhhhh – quiet please!

13 Workshop: Writing for Graphic Novels Missy Lang, Assistant Youth Services Coordinator, presents information about writing for graphic novels, including books and online resources, for authors and artists including how to search for publishing opportunities

So You Wanna CosPlay? Kat "Tigress" Ingersoll, semi-professional costumer and owner of Kat's Play, gives tips & tricks on sewing,cosplay and other things unrelated to reality.
